

General Assembly

The importance of the celebration of the 30th anniversary of ICUSTA is highlighted, within the framework of the 700th anniversary of the canonization of Thomas Aquinas.

If it informs that although in 2023 there would be a biannual meeting (because this year's should have been in 2021), we are not going to do it in 2023, but in 2024.

During the assembly we talk about:

1. Invitation to think of joint activities. Regional and local. Synchronous.
2. The executive committee accepted Abat Oliba's invitation to organize the next Icusta conference in 2024.
3. Activity of 2023 for the celebrations of the 30 years will not be mandatory. It can be face-to-face or virtual. It is proposed to regionalize the activities according to time zones. Africa-Europe. Oceania-Asia. Americas.
4. Promote ICUSTA solidarity projects, with a fund of US$10,000.
5. Executive Committee. President, former university, host university of the executive director, and two members voted by assembly. In this way, the new committee is: Abat Oliba (chair), UST Chile (host of the board), UFASTA (previous president), C. U. of Zimbabwe (member elected by assembly), UST Houston (member elected by assembly).
6. The Executive Director is unanimously re-elected.

In addition, they are proposed:

1. Magazine on Thomistic thought in order to the 700 years of his canonization.
2. Participate in the seminar that UAO dictates every Friday... at least one macro participation, and then satellite participations.
3. In 2024 it will be 800 years since the birth of Saint Thomas Aquinas.
4. That the courses taught by ICUSTA are compulsory for students from other universities.... Through the COIL methodology, showing the actuality of Thomist thought with everyday things. Thomist thought of current things.
5. Make a book for the 30 years.
6. Food safety courses from any approach (practical application of point 4).
7. Promote within our own teaching teams and students what ICUSTA is.
8. Communications team that puts together a newsletter and greets the rectors, explains what ICUSTA is, etc. Create a whatsapp group with members.

9. Participate together in the Universia meeting in Valencia. May '23. Those from Europe and Latin America participate... that Africa, the USA, Asia and Oceania join in to celebrate 30 years together.
10. That ICUSTA has a small scholarship of 200 euros to accompany doctors who spend some time abroad.
11. Encourage ICUSTA lectures. Where the university pays lodging and food to the person who receives.
